MEDIA RELEASE

THE AUSTRALIAN EMBASSY HOSTS 2019 ANZAC DAY DAWN SERVICE

The 2019 ANZAC Day dawn service will take place on Thursday 25th April at 6:30am in the Main Hall of the Korean War Memorial.

This year's ANZAC Day marks the 104th Anniversary of the landing at Gallipoli in World War I by a Commonwealth force which included the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps (ANZAC). The shared experience of the ANZACs formed the "ANZAC legend", which has become an important part of the national identity of both nations. The ANZAC service not only honours those who fought at Galipolli, but also acknowledges and commemorates the service and sacrifice of all the men and women who served Australia, its allies and former adversaries in wars and peacekeeping operations. For more information on ANZAC Day, please visit: <http://www.anzacportal.dva.gov.au/>

This year we will again be honoured by the participation of a number of Commonwealth veterans of the Korean War, including Australians and New Zealanders. All members of the public are invited to join the service.
